Erin represents her clients in all phases of litigation in both state and federal courts, including initial pleadings, discovery, alternative dispute resolution, and trial. She partners with her clients to understand their unique goals and helps guide them through the complexities of litigation. She prioritizes mitigating risk, while advocating for efficient outcomes and tailoring her strategy to align with their best interests. Erin is also an experienced estate planning attorney who counsels families regarding their legacy plans.

Prior to entering private practice, Erin served as a law clerk for the Honorable Judge Jerry N. Jones of the Colorado Court of Appeals, where she contributed to more than 40 published legal opinions. She also served as a law clerk for the South Dakota Second Judicial Circuit.
